

SUPERVISOR'S REVIEW ON THE FINAL QUALIFICATION WORK

Thesis Tourist and recreational load optimization on seaside destinations

(for example, the city of Anapa)

Author (full name) Kobylianskaia Anna

Education Programme «Tourist Destination Management»

Level of education master programme

Scientific supervisor Isachenko Tatyana Evgenievna, Country Studies & International Tourism of St. Petersburg State University, Associate Professor, Candidate of Geograph Sciences

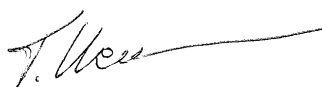

| Requirements for professional training | Correspond | Basically corresponds to | not correspond |
|--|------------|--------------------------|----------------|
| be able to correctly formulate and set tasks (problems) of their activities when performing the WRC, analyze, diagnose the causes of problems, determine their relevance | + | | |
| set priorities and methods for solving tasks (problems); | + | | |
| be able to use, process and analyze modern scientific, statistical, and analytical information; | + | | |
| possess modern methods of analysis and interpretation of the received information, evaluate their capabilities in solving the tasks (problems) | + | | |
| be able to rationally plan the time of work, determine the correct sequence and volume of operations and decisions when performing the task; | + | | |
| be able to objectively evaluate the results of calculations and computations; | + | | |
| be able to analyze the results of data interpretation; | + | | |
| know and apply the methods of system analysis; | + | | |
| be able to carry out interdisciplinary research; | + | | |
| be able to make independent informed and reliable conclusions from the work done | + | | |
| be able to use scientific literature of a professional orientation | + | | |
| be able to apply modern graphic, cartographic, computer and multimedia technologies in research | | + | |
| be able to use cartographic methods using GIS | | | |

Noted advantages of the work: The research was carried out at a good research and professional level. In the process of working on the master's research, all the tasks were solved. It should be noted the creative approach to the collection and analysis of the material, the complexity of the research, as well as the interest of the master's student. The presence of independent ideas in the formulation and solution of research tasks is particularly noted. The work is of practical importance and can be recommended for implementation in practice.

Noted disadvantages of the work. Minor stylistic errors associated with the lack of constant skill in writing independent texts.

Supervisor's conclusion: the work of Kobylianskaia A. meets the requirements for final qualifying works and deserves high praise.

Supervisor

/ T.E. Isachenko

May «19» 2021