REGIONS AND RICHNESS OF RUSSIA

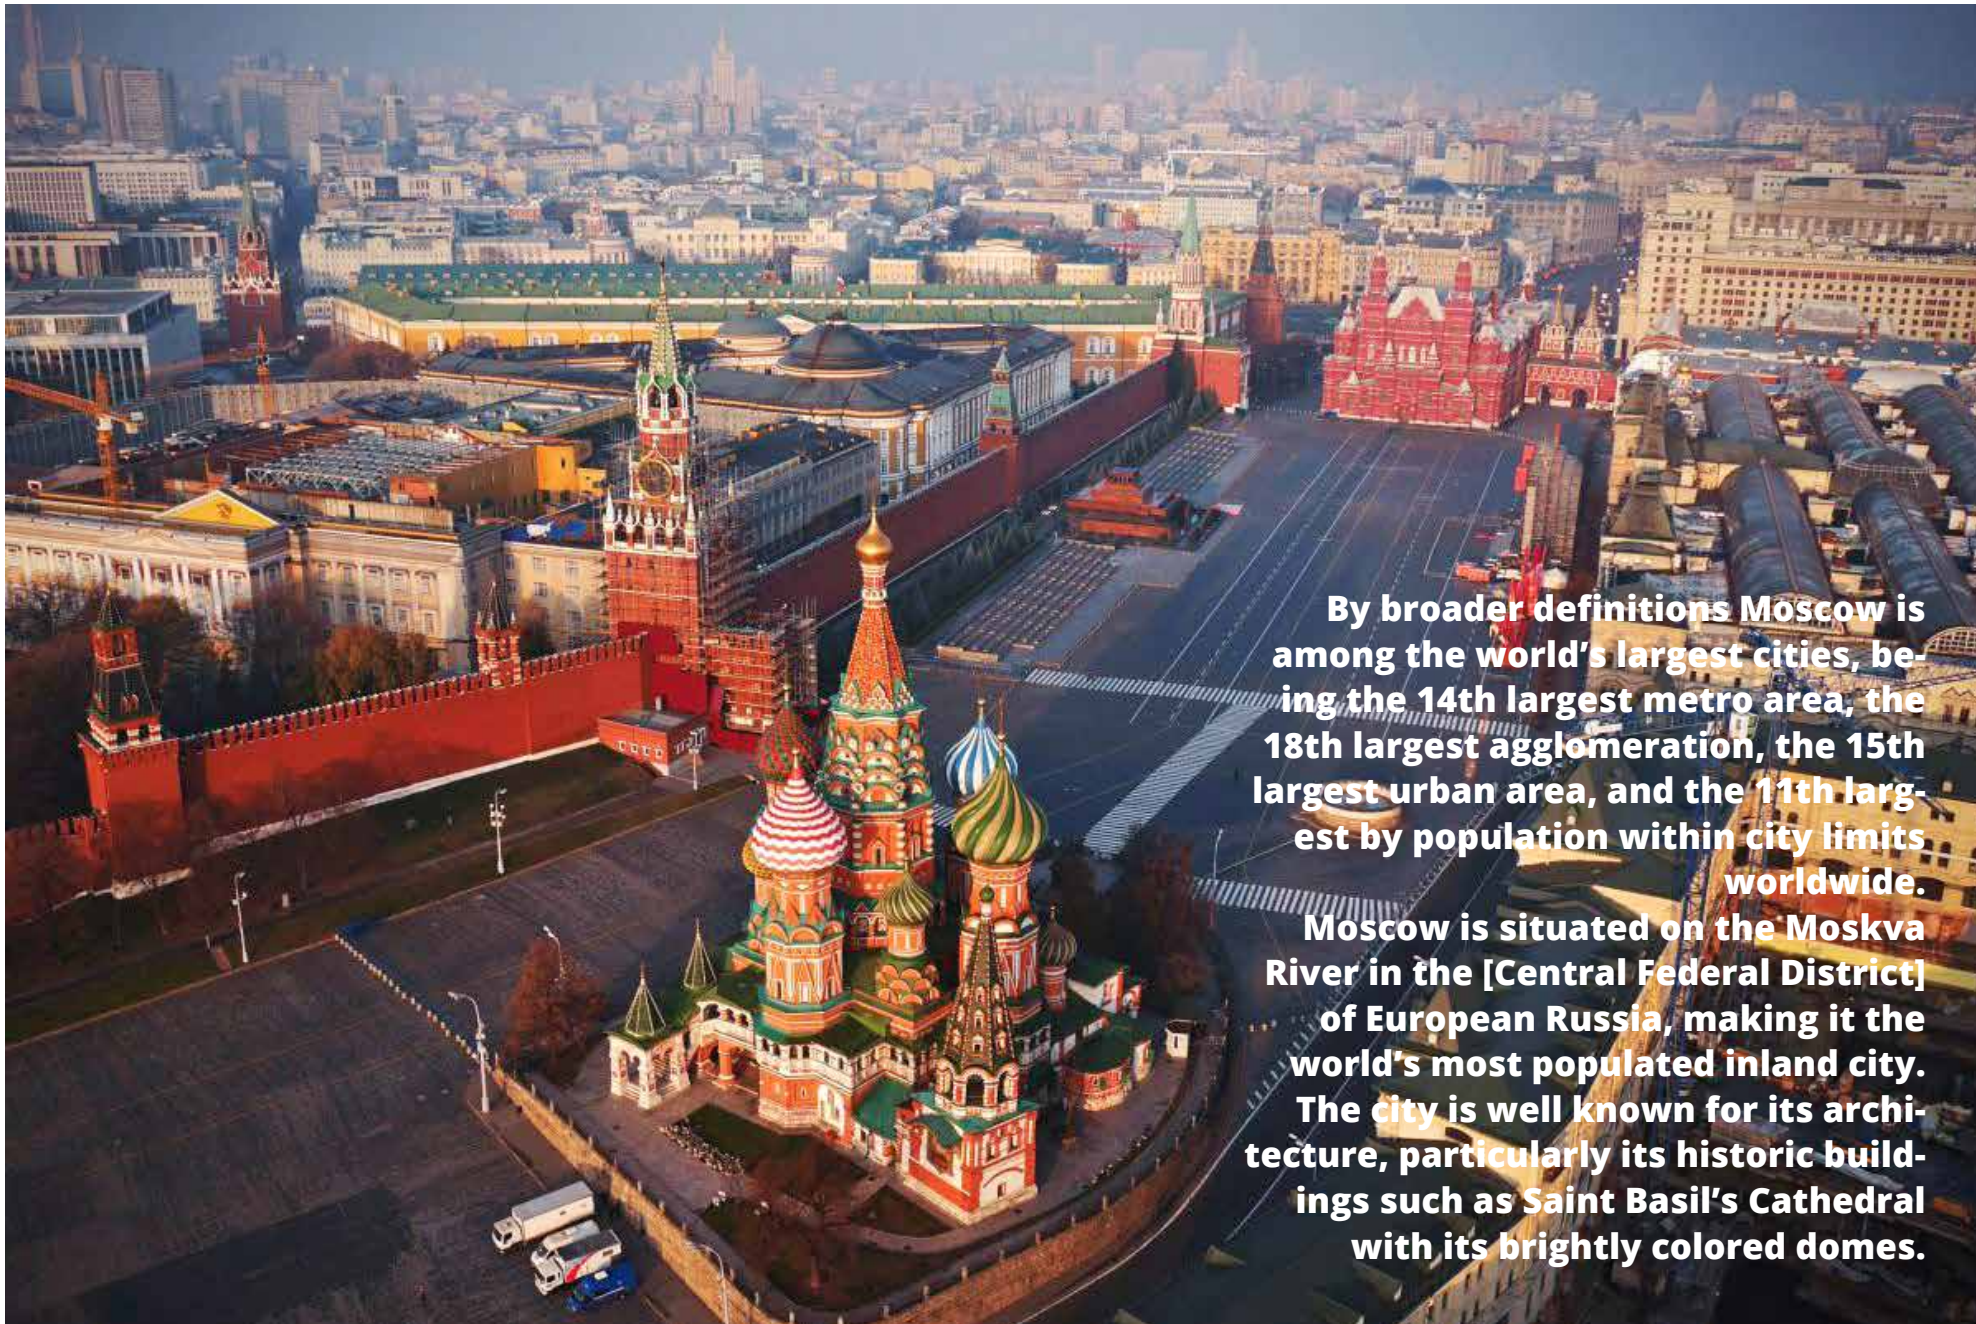

La Russie

MOSCOW

The capital and most populous city of the Russian Federation, with 12.2 million residents within the city limits and 16.8 million within the urban area. Moscow has the status of a Russian federal city. Moscow is a major political, economic, cultural, and scientific center of Russia and Eastern Europe, as well as the largest city entirely on the European continent.

By broader definitions Moscow is among the world's largest cities, being the 14th largest metro area, the 18th largest agglomeration, the 15th largest urban area, and the 11th largest by population within city limits worldwide.

Moscow is situated on the Moskva River in the [Central Federal District] of European Russia, making it the world's most populated inland city. The city is well known for its architecture, particularly its historic buildings such as Saint Basil's Cathedral with its brightly colored domes.

Top 10

- 10 GUM AND TSUM
GUM (pronounced goom) and TSUM (pronounced tsoom) are the largest, most over-the-top shopping malls in Moscow.
- 9 PATRIARSHY PRUDIY
Anyone who's ever read Mikhail Bulgakov's Master and Margarita will want to see Patriarshy Prudiy, just off the Garden Ring and not far from Mayakovsky Square and Tverskaya Ulitsa (the city's main drag)
- 8 THE BULVAR
Start out at Chistiye Prudiy, which means «Clean Pond» and is situated in the city's aptly named Chistiye Prudiy neighborhood.
- 7 35 MM
This is one of Moscow's most storied cinemas; it's located at the corner of the Garden Ring and Pokrovka Ulitsa.
- 6 O2 LOUNGE
At the base of Tverskaya Ulitsa, the busiest street in Moscow, sits the new Ritz-Carlton, and on the 12th floor of the hotel is the O2 Lounge.

- 5 SWISS ÔTEL
So long as we're comparing views, check out the City Space Bar & Lounge on the 34th floor of the Swiss Otel.
- 4 GORKY PARK
It's not just where Martin Cruz Smith set his novel — which everyone around here knows and finds very funny. It's also a great spot to get an ice cream cone, take a walk along the Moscow River.
- 3 WINZAVOD
Tucked behind the rusting Kurskiy Train Station, Winzavod is Moscow's very own Meatpacking District. The one-time factory now houses a series of galleries.
- 2 KRYSHA MIRA
With its plethora of six-foot-one models, growing music scene and excess leisure time, Moscow has become a hub for high-end nightclubs.
- 1 RED SQUARE
Red Square is often considered the central square of Moscow since Moscow's major streets, which connect to Russia's major highways, originate from the square.
